"Mr James Squair died suddenly on Tuesday forenoon. He was in Church on Sunday and going about in good health doing his ordinary duties on Monday. The following morning he complained of having felt unwell during the night, and did not rise to breakfast. About half past eleven o'clock in the forenoon he suddenly expired. Mr Squair was in his 74th year, having been born at Newmill Auldearn, in 1819. He learned the business of builder under the late Provost Wilson, Nairn. Going south he got some employment on large undertakings in Glasgow, but though he had many tempting offers to remain, he ultimately decided to return to Nairn and began work as a contractor. This he did, and afterwards, as a contractor with Sir James Fanshawe, constructed bridges and stations - first on the Inverness and Nairn line, and afterwards on the extensions which culminated in the Highland Railway. Nairn Bridge is a memorial of Mr Squair's ability as a builder. Nearly all the large buildings in Nairn were built by him. A good many years ago he entered on the farm of Brodley, and at a later period took the farm of Little Kildrummie, where he has since resided. He took a warm interest in public affairs, and was for a time member of Nairn Town Council and a magistrate of the bench. He was lately made a justice of the peace for the county and had been a member of the Nairn Landward School Board for many years. He was an office bearer in the Free Church, to which he was much attached. Mrs. Squair and family survive-him." The Late Mr George Squair Kildrummie "It was with feelings of deepest sorrow and regret that the community of Nairn learned that Mr George Squair, Kildrummie, had passed away on Thursday morning last. He had been present at the flora fete on the previous afternoon and evening, entering into all the little sports and amusements there with the greatest zest and enjoyment. He drove home with his friends at the close of the entertainment, and on retiring to rest appeared to be in usual health and spirits. He appears, however, to have had an attack of heart complaint over night and succumbed to it early in the morning. His unlooked for demise has been a great shock, as he was the centre of so many activities and interests. Succeeding while quite a young man to the farm of Kildrummie on his father's death, his whole lifetime was spent in Nairnshire, and he took an active and useful part in its public concerns during that period. A keenly intelligent farmer, himself , he was warmly, interested in the progress of agriculture, and did much to promote its advance, particularly in connection with the Nairnshire Farming Society, of which he was Vice-President for several terms discharging the duties of his office with great tact and geniality. He was also a valued member of the Nairnshire Advisory Committee of the North of Scotland College of Agriculture, and took a warm interest in the various experiments and schemes carried out by it in the county.

In fact whatever severed to advance the interests of agriculture found in him a warm friend and supporter. A trip to Canada and the United States he made a few years ago broadened his outlook, and so vivid and accurate were his impressions of farming in the West in the account he wrote of his through the Dominion, that the Canadian Pacific Railway authorities had it reprinted as a broadsheet for the information of intending settlers. Mr George Squair's practical judgment in all matters relating to farming were so much appreciated and valued by his neighbours that during the last few years he discharged the functions of arbiter and valuator over the whole district, to the satisfaction and benefit of all concerned. He did not confine himself to demands of his profession, He was an excellent musician, and was an enthusiastic member of the local Orchestral Society while it lasted. Of his personal qualities it is difficult to write within the restraint imposed by conventional rules. He was in every way a man of a most likeable disposition-bright, cheery, and chivalrous in his intercourse with all whom he met, while within the circle of his more intimate friends he was held in affectionate esteem for his warm-heartedness, his sincerity of purpose and his devotion to duty in his own sphere of life. His end has been sudden, but he leaves behind him happy memories which will long be cherished. The funeral took place yesterday to the Nairn Cemetery, and the imposing cortege as it wended its way was singularly impressive. The services were conducted at Kildrummie and at the grave by the Rev. Robert Wilson, U.F. Church, of whose congregation the deceased was an attached member, an affectionate tribute being paid to his memory at the Sunday morning service by Mr Wilson, Numerous beautiful wreaths, the tokens of personal regard and affection, were laid on the grave.

To Mr D. Baird and His Bride Happy Scene at Mansion

Scenes of enthusiasm greeted the arrival at Durriss House last night of Mr Douglas Baird and his bride after their honeymoon in Wales.

As darkness fell, employees and tenantry on the estate assembled in the grounds waiting the approach of the happy couple. When their car entered the drive ropes were attached and, to the skirl of bagpipes, the vehicle was dragged to the entrance of the mansion house. Pulling the car were four stalwart men, who in 1893 hauled the carriage bearing the late Mr H. R. Baird and Mrs Baird, father and mother of Mr Douglas, when they returned from their honeymoon. The "team" consisted of Major Reid, Balbridie, Durriss; Mr John Reid, Cairnfauld; Mr David Coutts, Westerton; and Mr Greig, late of Kinclunie. The ropes used last night were those used to pull Mr and Mrs H. R. Baird. As the car was drawn to the front of the house, beneath banners inscribed "Welcome Home" loud cheers came from about two hundred employees and tenants. Simultaneously there was a burst of fireworks from the lawn, the balcony and terrace of the house. Rockets and crackers sent streaks of multi-coloured flame high into the air, while showers of rose petals covered the car. Awaiting the young couple on the steps was Mrs H.R. Baird, who had a quiet word of welcome to her son and his bride, while cheer after cheer was raised. Mrs Douglas Baird was dressed in a smart coat of checked tweed with dark fur. Before entering the house, Mr and Mrs Baird paused on the terrace to acknowledge the welcome given them. Mr David Anderson, Balfour House, wished them long health and happiness, as he expressed the joy of the company. Mr Baird in a brief reply, thanked the people for their loyalty. When Mr and Mrs Baird had retired to the house., Pipers Macdonald and Mathieson of the 5/7th Gordon Highlanders, struck up an eightsome reel which was heartily danced on the lawn. The health of the couple was toasted with enthusiasm

"Feelings of deep regret were occasioned in the Cawdor district when it became known that Mr. Peter Mackenzie, Carpenter, Broomhill Cottage, Cawdor had passed away in his 72nd year. Of a quiet unassuming manner, Peter had a host of friends who will mourn his loss. A first class workman, he served for many years under late Roderick Mackenzie, Blairmore, and afterwards carried on successfully on his own account. He was a regular attendee and staunch supporter of the Cawdor North Church until the infirmities of old age made this impossible. Sympathetic reference was made from the pulpit on Sunday by the Rev. John Rose who said Mr. Mackenzie was a workman who might not be ashamed. He had a long family connection with the church, to who he was very generous. He was faithful and unostentatious in his work. Testimony of his skill and craft was borne out in the beautiful out in the beautiful workmanship of the pulpit chair which he gifted to the church to which he ever gave much concern. To his relatives Mr. Rose extended the congregations sympathy. A keen horticulturalist he took an active interest in the Cawdor Horticultural Society and up to a few years ago was a noted exhibitor and prize-winner." Nairnshire Telegraph 20th March 1934.

Some Recent Deaths

The death of Mr Peter John McLeay, which took place at Riverbank, Conon-Bridge, on Monday evening will be regretted by his many friends in the North and South. He was the youngest son of the late Mr Hay Mackenzie McLeay a well- known Dingwall merchant. The deceased was 55 years of age he had a wide electrical engineers experience having served his apprenticeship with the famous firm of Messer's Loudon Dundee, after a period in Glasgow he went to Dublin, where he acquired an electrical business. In the last war, he joined the Royal Engineers and was awarded the Meritorious Service Medal. Seriously gassed he was unable to resume his trade and returned to Conon to recuperate. After service in the present war as C.Q.M.S. Seaforth Highlanders, at headquarters in the North, he became Barrack Warden at Dingwall but had to resign owing to ill health. He was a keen critic of football his wide knowledge having been gained by witnessing many first class matches and internationals in Scotland, England and Ireland. His favourites however were his county team. He always closely followed their fortune no matter where he went. For a short time, he was a member of Committee. Gardening and particularly fishing were his hobbies. As an ex serviceman he took a keen interest in the welfare of his fellow comrades and was always a staunch supporter of the Dingwall Branch of British Legion never failing to give his earnest endeavours to its many activities. Endowed with a bright and happy nature many friends will miss his cheerful company. To his surviving four sisters, two brothers and other relatives a deep sympathy is extended. His sisters were Mrs Renwick South Africa, Mrs Gawthorne South Africa, Mrs Bidden South Africa and Mrs Macfarlane Conon-Bridge who devotedly tended to him during his illness, Donald and Roderick, the brothers are in South America and Canada respectively.

DROWNED IN SPEY Aberlour Man's Fatal Bathe. DRAGGED UNDER BY CURRENT

Shortly after seeing a girlfriend off on a bus, a twenty-five year old Aberlour railway surfaceman was drowned in the river Spey.

Three companions, George Squair, Alex Stuart, and John Cruickshank, met at the house of a friend, Mrs Robertson, The Square and after listening to the wireless for a time Squair suggested that as the night was warm they should go for a bathe in the river.

As they left Mrs Robertson urged to take care of themselves, to which Squair replied "We'll do that"

The men in order to have strict privacy, crossed the bridge to the Morayshire side of the river. Squair was first in the water, which at parts was so low as to enable one to wade across to the Banffshire side. He proceeded to what is known as the Boat Pool, which he scarcely had reached when he was dragged under by a swift undercurrent.

Cry for Help. His cry for help - "Come on boys" startled his two companions, who immediately rushed to his assistance, but within a second or two he had disappeared.

Although the other two lads could not swim, they made a brave endeavour to rescue their companion, and when they saw it was impossible Stuart made for the bank, and donning a pair of trousers, he ran barefooted to Aberlour, a distance of half a mile. After raising the alarm he collapsed.

Meantime Squair's disappearance had been witnessed by a woman in a pearl fisher's camp, whose shrieks brought several people to the scene.

Body Located.

Amongst those first at the spot were Mr J. Smith, confectioner, and Mr Cook, hairdresser. They immediately searched the pool, and Mr Smith, on a second attempt located the body. Dr Beatrice Seller had been summoned and did everything that was possible, but it was found that he was dead.

Squair was a member of the local Football Committee and was keenly interested in sport. He was due to go on holiday.

ALMA ELIZABETH KELLY (nee BAILEY) 1921 - 2002 Peacefully and with dignity, as a result of illness, our beloved wife, mother, grandmother and great-grandmother passed away on Wednesday, June 12, 2002 at the Grace Hospital. Alma was born September 14, 1921 on her parents farm near Meadow Lea. After her schooling, Mom worked as a nanny for several families in and around Winnipeg, most memorably for Constable Dan and Mrs. Mary Bissett of Headingley. The Bissett girls still affectionately refer to Mom as "Ammy", and remain special members of Moms large, extended family. In October of 1941, Alma married Alan Kelly of Poplar Heights and began a new phase of her life on the farm along the winding Assiniboine River at Belcourt. As her family grew, so did Almas involvement in church and community activities. Mom became a longtime member of St. Pauls A.C.W., served on the board of Marquette Co-op, as a provincial board member of M.F.A.C., a member of Federated Co-op Womens Guild, the Poplar Point Horticultural Society, the Rupertsland Diocesan Council, a Synod Delegate, was active in the Belcourt Community Club, the Poplar Point Seniors Club, the St. Francois Xavier History Book Committee, and later, the S.F.X. Historical Society. Mom enjoyed so much of what life offered her. Her love of music and her talent as an organist and pianist ran like a thread through all her life activities and touched the hearts of many others. Mom will be remembered for her love of baking, flower gardening, old-time dances, reading, writing, crocheting, redecorating, and mushroom picking on Sunday afternoons at the farm. Mom sewed, watched birds, loved trees, rocked babies to sleep and in later years on the farm, took up oil and acrylic landscape painting. After giving up heavy farming, Mom and Dad loved to swim daily in the pool they had built and they shared the fun with family and many visitors. In 1986, Mom and Dad retired to Winnipeg where they continued to make new friends. They took to travelling and enjoyed their trips to Alaska, the Maritimes as well as to England, Scotland and Ireland. Alma enjoyed her volunteer work, playing piano for seniors first at the Kiwanis Courts then at Grace Hospital, 3rd floor, for 10 years. Last June, Mom and Dad moved from Victoria Arms to the Westhaven where Mom once again brought her music to a new group of appreciative friends. Almas memory will be cherished by her husband of 60 years, Alan; by her children, Richard (Marcie), Robin (Anne), Alana (Jim), Christopher (Diane) and Andrew (Anna Mae) nine grandchildren, 11 great-grandchildren; and one great-great-grandchild; sisters, Georgina and Pat. Mom was predeceased by her parents, George and Georgina; infant son Michael; sister Agnes; brothers, Allan and Hedley; grandson Joshua; and daughter-in-law Kathleen. Friends and family are invited to share in a celebration of Almas life at 11:00 a.m., Tuesday, June 18, at St. Andrews Anglican Church, Portage at Woodhaven Road. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Grace General Hospital Foundation, 300 Booth Dr. Cremation has taken place. Well all miss your hugs Mom Gods blessings and heartfelt thanks to the staff at the Westhaven and on 3 north Grace Hospital for care and compassion shown to Alma.

Winnipeg Free Press 15th June 2002. She married Alan Edward Kelly, b. 17 Apr 1915, d. 28 Aug 2007. Alan: ALAN EDWARD KELLY April 17, 1915 - August 28, 2007 Alan passed away peacefully on August 28, 2007, at age 92, surrounded by family. Alan was predeceased by his wife Alma, infant son Michael, daughter-in-law Kathleen and grandson Joshua. He is survived by his daughter Alana, sons, Andrew (Anna Mae), Chris (Diane), Robin (Ann) and Dick (Marcie), nine grandchildren, 17 great-grandchildren and numerous nieces and nephews. He will be especially missed by his special friend Gladys Smith. Alan was born in Winnipeg in 1915 and spent his early life on the family farm near Marquette. At 18 he went to work with a prospector in the Bissett area, while continuing to work on the family farm. During the Second World War, he took R.C.M.P. Reserve training in Regina as part of the home guard. He then purchased land along the Assiniboine River at Belcourt, which became the family farm for the next 48 years. In 1941 he married Alma Bailey of Marquette. They had six children, five of whom survived fires, floods, hail, bugs and all the joys of life on a dairy-based mixed farm. Alan and Alma retired from farming in 1987 and moved to Winnipeg. Overall, they shared 60 years as husband and wife. Alan was always a busy man. Besides the demands of the farm, Alan was actively involved in the movement and sat on the boards of the credit union, the school, M.F.A.C., Pool Elevator plus many other organizations. He served as a Councillor for St. Francois Xavier and later as President of the Poplar Point Seniors Group, the Elie A.N.A.F. and the Victoria Arms Senior's Group. Alan and Alma always enjoyed meeting people and developed many lasting friendships both near and far. Alan will be dearly missed by family and friends. Irva was born December 19, 1911, to parents Dr. and Mrs. T.I.E. Rutledge in Carberry, MB. When she was six years old she moved with her family to Swan River, MB, where her father was the first veterinarian in the Swan River Valley. She loved to tell stories of those childhood years. After completing high school she graduated from Normal School in Winnipeg and accepted a teaching position in Ossawa School Division north of Reaburn, where she met her future husband, Jim Squair. She taught in Renwer, MB for two years before returning to marry Jim in 1937. Their life together was filled with love, laughter, hard work, family and friends. They moved from the original Squair family homestead in 1955 when Irva accepted a teaching position in Marquette. A move to Warren in 1967 was prompted by the closure of one-room schools marking the end of an era in rural Manitoba. She taught Grade 3 in Warren until retiring in 1973. Irva later lived in Winnipeg before moving to Brandon to be closer to family. Irva was a woman of great strength and fortitude with an ability to deal with difficult situations. She influenced many lives through her years of teaching, but her greatest impact was on the lives of her children and grandchildren. Her love for her husband and children was always foremost in her life. Memories of her sense of humour, love of nice clothes and wonderful home cooking will always be with us. Irva was

"W J McIntosh was in B Coy and he was either in V or VIII Platoon. His number was over 2000. He came from Ipswich and before the war he worked on the railway. He was a married man and had I believe one or two children. He was the only one man called McIntosh in the company. On the night of the 19th July I was at a M.G. Post in the first line at Plogsteert and McIntosh and four or five others were in a dugout close by. I saw a shell fall on the dug out and heard McIntosh call out for S/Bs. I went in the dugout and found McIntosh terribly wounded and he was quite dead. The same shell wounded three others in the dugout named Nichols, Barker and Harding. McIntosh was buried close by where he was killed and I have seen a cross over his grave with his name, number and regiment on it. " Pte F.J. Thurson 3026

" I am able to tell you just what happened to McIntosh, and to give the names of two eye-witnesses:- L/Cpl Cumming 49th A.I.F. B Coy and Pte J.Jones 49th A.I.F. B Coy. A shell dropped right on top of a dug-out just after McIntosh had been relieved on post. It was at midnight on the 19th July at Plug Street in front of Hill 63 to the right of Ypres. The shell blew half his head off. I took an interest in him because we were brought up together at Ipswich, Queensland. He was married and lived near Brisbane" Sgt P. Connors 3265 B. Coy 49th A.I.F.

"He was an old S. African soldier. I last saw him about 19th July at Ploogstreet about 10 p.m. I was then with him on M.G. outpost duty, in a sandbag shelter. A shell made a direct hit on it and killed him instantly and wounded Billy Barker, who is in England now. I think I saw it happen. We buried him the next night close to where he fell and a cross was put up which I have seen with his name on it. I had only known him about a week or so. He was in B Coy" Pte S.O. Perry.
