

Moray & Nairn Infectious Diseases Hospital, New Spynie

1911 Census

Reproduced with the kind permission of the Registrar General for Scotland.

Name & Surname	Relationship	Age	Occupation / Service	Birthplace
Jessie Campbell	Matron	34	Hospital Nurse	Inverness, Fort William
Margaret Simpson	Nurse	27		Rosshire, Resolis
Grace Davidson	Nurse	19		Banffshire, Tomintoul
Elizabeth Bisset	Nurse	21		Lanarkshire, Wishaw
Jane Gordon	Servant	35	Cook (Institution)	Morayshire, Duffus
Annie Forsyth	Servant	21	Wardmaid	Morayshire, New Spynie
John Walker	Official	47	Porter	Morayshire, Elgin
Mary Walker	His Wife	38	Laundress	Banffshire, Grange
Annie Smith Walker	His Daur	1		Morayshire, New Spynie
Williamina Bowie	His Servant	14	Porters General Servant	Aberdeenshire, Glass
Marjorie Paul	Inmate	16	At Home	Morayshire, Elgin
George Dawson	Inmate	13	School	Morayshire, (Baldow) Knockando
Violet Thompson	Inmate	9	School	Morayshire, Elgin
Amelia Macdonald	Inmate	12	School	Morayshire, Knockando
Alice Mann	Inmate	3		Morayshire, Elgin
Edith Barbour	Inmate	9	School	Morayshire, New Spynie
Evelyn Murray	Inmate	5	School	Morayshire, Alves
Jane Ross	Inmate	1		Morayshire, Elgin

136 Ed 2 p. 8-9

Jessie Campbell had been married for 6 years and had one child. Jane Gordon was also married and had no children.

All the patients who were in the hospital appear to have recovered except for Jane Ross who died on the 6th of April 1911, aged 1, at the hospital, the cause of death being Diphtheria, which she had had for 6 days. Her parents were Lachlan Ross, Master Sawmiller and Jane Elizabeth Ross, nee McLeod and their residence was 259 High Street, Elgin.