

Dallas Free Church

Dallas Free Church was formed from the Disruption of 1843, with part of the congregation joining the Free Church. Minister was settled in August 1844. Church was built in 1845 and rebuilt 1870. In 1848 membership was at 102 by 1900 it was 55, drop in numbers was due to a decrease in parish population (Ewing 1914). In 1900 the minister and the congregation joined the United Free Church as Dallas High, and re-joined with the Church of Scotland in 1952.

The Marriage Register for 1846-1894 contains name and usually place of residence, whilst the Baptismal Register for 1875-1884 contains parent's names and residence.

Both are held in the National Records of Scotland, Edinburgh (Reference CH3/1131). The records are part of the following held by the NRS:

- 1 – Minutes 1845-1908
- 2 – Minutes 1908-1950
- 3 – Deacons' Court Minutes 1845-1879
