October 2013

Welcome to the latest edition of the Moray & Nairn FHS Newsletter.

MNFHS Chairman's Report

As the nights draw in (well at least for members in Moray & Nairn, maybe not for those of you around the globe) it's time to think of next year's projects for the 2014 year of Homecoming. A number of fairs are expected to be held and hopefully Moray & Nairn FHS will attend some of them, we will of course be attending the SAFHS conference in April in Dunfermline.

For the Society a number of publications are ongoing including Cawdor & Barevan Churchyards, Nairn Poorhouse and Kinloss Free Church. Keep an eye on the web page for updates.

Death Notices,
Articles Concerning Deaths
and Obituaries from the

Forres Gazette 1837-1855

Unlike today, in 1837 there was no newspaper published in Forres; people of the town had to content themselves with newspapers from other parts of Scotland, and further afield.

Newspapers were being printed in Edinburgh, Glasgow and elsewhere that might just contain small snippets of news local to Forres, and there were some newspapers being published at that time in Inverness and Aberdeen. Between Inverness and Aberdeen, though, the only local newspaper then published seems to have been the Elgin Courant, which started in 1836.

John Miller, an Elgin businessman, saw an opportunity and opened a printing establishment in the town where he determined that Forres should have a newspaper of its own and, in June 1837, posters were displayed in the town announcing the forthcoming publication on 4th July 1837 of a new newspaper, the Forres, Elgin & Nairn Gazette, a local newspaper still going strong in the town today as the Forres Gazette.

The newspaper started as a monthly publication of only four pages; it was not until the start of 1851 that it was published fortnightly; and, only from April 1855 did it start to appear weekly.

Notices cover deaths in Forres, the near neighbourhood, the rest of the county, throughout the country and even overseas. Examples can be found of notices from Australia, Canada, India and other parts of the British Empire; and also from the United States, and more unexpected places such as Paris, Buenos Ayres, Gambia, &c.

There are announcements of the death of the illustrious, the well-known and the humble. The shortest announcement may be one from December 5, 1838 which simply states, "Died, at Elgin, last month, James Hay, Porter." The longest announcement and obituary is probably that for the Rev Thomas Stark, whose death is announced in the issue of February 7, 1849 and whose obituary occupies many columns of the next issue on March 7, 1849.

Published in 3 Parts: 1 – 1837-146 94 pages, 2 – 1847-1851 90 pages, 3 – 1851 -1855 108 pages. Each £6; P & P costs on application.

Nairn Miscellany

The Falconer's and Tulloch's of Reriach.

Sandy Munro (of Montrose)'s father many years ago acquired several books that had belonged to his mother's second cousins, the Mann sisters in Nairn, nieces of the Reverend John Falconer (1835-1890) who was uncle of Sir John Falconer who became Provost of Edinburgh. Out of one book fell some sheets of paper on which the Rev. Falconer had jotted down the genealogy of the Falconer family of Reriach (a descendant is Lord Falconer, former Lord Chancellor), and of the Tullochs of Nairnshire, some Macgillivrays and other families. Reriach had been tenanted by Macgillivrays (alias McFarquhar, alias McKerchar) in early 18th century (Cawdor rent rolls), before Duncan McFarquhar/Macgillivray married Janet Falconer in 1768 and her brother John shared the tenancy. The last of the Falconers at Reriach was William Falconer who died in the 1930s.

Reriach, 13th March 1877, My Uncle's histories. The wife of the Revd John Fraser, Kiltarlity (b 1750), was a sister of the Rev Alexr. Fraser, DB Kirkhill (b 1749). She died at home after their youngest child, John was married. There were several daughters, one of whom was married to a Mr. McKenzie from Glen Urquhart who emigrated to Canada. Two daughters were dressmakers in Forres, in Elgin. They emigrated to Canada. Their brother John was a schoolmaster at Tomintoul; and he is supposed to have married his servant girl, and John emigrated to America. My Granduncle John (b c. 1760), taught a school in Kirkhill. While there, my grandmother, Ann Fraser (b abt 1765), kept house for him, and was engaged to be married to a farmer there, of whom it was discovered, between his contract with my grandmother and the term appointed for their marriage, that another woman was with child to him. My Grandmother immediately left Kirkhill, and would have none of him. "Bha I seachd bliadhua'n a bran-bannich".

My great great grandfather John Falconer (b abt 1695) was twice married. By his first wife he had John, my great grandfather, Alexander who was in Ballone, the father of the Falconer, Nairnside, a JP (also David) & of the first Mrs. George Gowans (illegible), the mother of Alex. Gowans who died at Cawdor.

William, who was in Torrich, the father of William who was married to Hugh McIntyre's sister (Margaret d/o Robert McIntyre and Anna Falconer b abt 1795), of Dean Chrisdidh, of Falconer, Ballagan (in fact this was a daughter Isobel who married Hugh Falconer who farmed at Calder's Breacklich); and of Walter Ross' mother, Balnancaldonach (Margaret).

Janet or A'bheanay 'Chang, wife of Duncan McFarquhar (McGillivray) Ririach. Janet, mother of Duncan McGillivray, dyer, Cawdor who was the father of Alexr, dyer there now, of John, baker, at Cawdor, of Duncan, being butler to Earl Cawdor, nc.

By his second wife, my great-great-grandfather was father of

Duncan, who was at Merrytown near Nairn, and had descendants, and of Kate, wife of Alexander Rose, who was miller at Achindown. Their only daughter was Sarah who was married to Duncan Dallas, Inchyettle and had 12 or 13 children.

William – a ploughman in ?

Alexander, town clerk, Inverness

Duncan – farmer Inchyettle

James - lawyer, Perth, dead and his wife

Peter - groom Nairn, now wandering

Lachlan - emigrated to U. States. Good man.

John – emigrated to United States

David – MD. Stationmaster ? South of Scotland

Margaret – emigrated to US. Dead

Janet – mard. To Rbt Grant, shepherd (1838). Had a large family. He and she dead.

Sarah – mard to John McArthur (1837), Achneim. Both dead. Left large family.

Kate – mard a Clerk – in England? (in fact she married John Gregor Macgillivray in Cawdor in 1864 and lived in Stoke Damerel, England)

A twin sister to James died

Genealogy of the Tullochs – Had a talk about it last week with the Revd. John Tulloch, from St Stephen's Perth.

So far as I can remember, I heard the late John Tulloch, Blairmore (Doghill) say that the first of the Tullochs came to this country at the time of the persecution, in the service of the Roses of Kilravock.

1. My great-grandfather, William Tulloch, came from Geddes to Balnairait, when he died, not an old man. His wife was Lilius Robertson.
2. His brother was John = "Tulach na fola" father of John, David, Isabella & Margaret
3. Another brother, David, Cantraydown (illeg: a smith?)
4. Another Hugh who lived at Cromarty and was father of the Revd. W. Tulloch, Dallas, father of Revd Charles Tulloch, late of Livingston Free Church (Rev Wm

Tulloch married Jane Cumming natural grand-daughter of Sir Alexr Gordon Cumming and Lady Helen Cumming Grant, see "Scotch Verdict")

My great-grandfather's family:

I. David, in Balnrait, mard to Margt. McIntosh, from Blackmill. Family, William (Whinhill), David (America), John, Baker (X) Beaul; Charles, carpenter, Sydney, Hugh, blacksmith, Balnrait.

II. Charles, my grandfather, mard to Isabella Davidson, Glen of Holm, daughter of John D. there& Margt. McIntosh his wife. My grandmother's brother and sisters were

(1) Donald who died in the voyage to America
(2) Isabella, my grandmother (3) Janet d. unmarried (4) Alexander, father of Donald, Ruadhan.

My grandfather's family

1. John, who emigrated to America and died in Iowa, US, leaving 1 son and 2 daughters, Charles, Kate & Mary-Ann.

2. William, saddler, (illeg: Perth/Keith) married to Catherine McDonald of – Only child, Charles

3. Lillias – my mother

4. Margaret who died unmarried
Isabella died in (illegible)

III Hugh my grand-uncle, who died at Newlands of Torrich, leaving 2 sons and two daughters. All died except Lillias

IV John, leather merchant, Inverness, left 4 daughters and had a son. All dead except Isabella who is in New York.

V Margaret, married to William Reid. His second wife – John, Magt, Lillias (X William?), Margt wife of Duncan Alexander, Mickle burn.

VI Janet, married to Lachlan McArthur, who went to America. She died at Doghill.

Donald Davidson, Rephuill (died there, called D. Ghherlect-) In all 10 (children)

(1) John Davidson, married Margaret McIntosh. Issue Isabella (b 1779) married Charles Tulloch (Issue John, William, Lillias, Margaret) Donald died in West Indies, Janet (died in) in Glen of Holm, Alexander Issue Margaret & Donald

(2) James was in the army and died at Perth.

(3) William died at Dyke leaving two daughters

(4) Jane, grandmother of Alex Fraser who died at Nairn

(5) Janet married McKenzie, their daughter Janet perished near "Cairn na Caillich". Issue Robertsons at Rephuill.

(6) Christy married Davidson, a weaver, at Rephuill, Issue (illeg Emigrants?)

Etc.

The above Margaret McIntosh, and John McArthur, Knockloun were second cousins. Her uncle (maternal) was Peter McArthur Gamekeeper to Earl Cawdor, and father of Peter, James and Margaret McArthur of whom Peter is at Inverness, James at Elgin and Margaret at Glasgow.

John Falconer, Rosehall

Rev John Falconer was born 24 September 1835 and died 14 February 1890 at Rosehall, Sutherland, married Lillias Finlayson Sinclair. He was the son of John Falconer of Reriach, Cawdor and Lillias Tulloch, Whinwill.

Transcribed by Jane McGillivray who was put in contact with Sandy Munro by Paul Gifford, who has written Falconer of Halkerton. Jane writes: I have much more information on these families (but not into 19th century) so should you want any further details please email jane@dunmaglass.com

Moray Miscellany

Doug Stewart, one of our Committee members who compiled the deaths and obituaries from the Forres Gazette, also minded to extract some of those births and marriages listed, which we will put in the newsletter in this and forthcoming issues.

Multiple Births

The birth announcements carry more notices of multiple births than might be expected. In the period 1837-1855, there are at least 27 announcements of twins, and three announcements of triplets.

The 'twin' announcements include:

Birth, at North Street, Elgin, on the 29th ult., Mrs Gatherer, of twin sons. (October 3, 1837)

Sad Announcements

Most of the birth announcements in the Forres

Gazette are, of course, joyous events; some, however, are more sombre. There are four that stand out.

Birth, at Grange Hall, on the 18th ult., the Lady of Major Grant Peterkin, of a son, who survived only a few hours. April 4, 1845.

Birth, at 62, South College Street, Elgin, on the 4th inst., the wife of Mr William Russell, farmer, of a son, still-born. July 11, 1855

Birth, at Forres, on the 7th inst., the wife of Mr C Naughtie, vintner, of a daughter, still-born. July 11, 1855

Birth, at Branxholm Park, on the 27th ult., Mrs Grieve, of a son. March 10, 1852 which has, in parenthesis immediately after the note that. "we deeply regret to observe that Mrs Grieve died on Sabbath morning last."

Moray Miscellany

Not My Alexander Shand

Recently, I stumbled upon an entry in the Elgin Courier of December 25, 1863 detailing the appearance of Alexander Shand, general merchant and agent, Lossiemouth at a Bankruptcy Court in Elgin.

At first glance, I couldn't tell if he was one of my Shand family connections; he might have been Alexander Shand, 1796-1876, Grieve and Grain Agent, the father of Professor John Shand (see 'Old John' in Moray Miscellany on the Society website, <http://www.morayandnairnfhs.co.uk>).

The reported court proceedings told me otherwise; this Alexander Shand was the one of the sons of Captain George Shand, Harbourmaster of Lossiemouth, whose family hailed from Macduff, Banffshire.

The report states that Alexander Shand started business as coal-merchant in Lossiemouth in 1856, with three partners: his father, Robert Brander and John McConnachie. In the autumn of 1857, Alexander and his father also commenced a business of rope and sail-maker. By 1859, Alexander's three partners in the coal-business had been bought out at the cost of £18 each; and in 1861 his father made over to him their joint venture in rope and sail-making. Alexander is also reported as dealing in manures and salt, and had bought three house properties in Lossiemouth on funds raised on credit. At the time of the hearing, though, Alexander reported having lost about £150 on the coal-business, and £700 in the rope & sail-making. By the middle of 1863 he was having difficulties raising money and meeting his engagements, and two months previous to the court case some of his creditors had raised and executed diligence against him, and he had no choice but to take out sequestration.

The statement, at the end of the report, giving the summary of funds showed liabilities as £2,374 14s 11d and assets only £1,085 18s 10d, so a deficiency of £1,288 16s 1d. - which, in today's terms, is the equivalent to more than £100,000!

The estates of Alexander were sequestered on November 27th, and announcements appeared locally in the Elgin Courier and the Inverness Courier, in newspapers from further afield, such as the Sheffield Independent, Newcastle Journal and Carlisle Journal, and The Edinburgh Gazette.

More than a year later, an advertisement in the Elgin Courier of January 13, 1865 announced the sale of ground and dwelling houses thereon in Branderburgh belonging to Alexander Shand by Public Roup, within Bell's Hall, Lossiemouth, on Saturday the 21st day of January.

The properties may not have sold at first attempt, because the advertisement appeared in the issues of February 17 and February 24 as well; but must eventually have sold, because there's an announcement in The Edinburgh Gazette of July 11, 1865 of a dividend to be paid to the creditors of Alexander Shand.

By April 1867, however, Alexander Shand is back in business as an agent for the sales of fertilizers, and there are advertisements appearing in the Elgin Courier almost every week from April to July that year for sales of guano, dissolved bones, blood manure, English linseed cake, &c.

That the business must have been reasonably successful is indicated by a further dividend being paid, as advertised in The Edinburgh Gazette of October 18, 1867.

Alexander Shand died at South Portland Street, Glasgow on June 4th, 1868 aged only 33 years.

Members Interests

I am researcher for the Clan Davidson Association and continue to collate any historical Davidson or Davison reference across the Moray & Nairn area. This is one of the key areas of research for the Clan Davidson.

Using a combination of published material [eg M&NFHS & MBGRG publications], public regional and national on-line databases, [eg Moray Archives Index], as well as on the ground research with a camera and notebook, we are building up a wide range of archive & image files, together with a series of family trees. We follow up anything. We also willingly share our findings with enquirers.

If any readers hold any Davidson related references from any location in the Moray & Nairn area, I would be particularly interested to hear from you.
