Welcome to the latest edition of the Moray & Nairn FHS Newsletter.

MNFHS Chairman's Report

Moray & Nairn Family History Society attended the Lanarkshire Family History Fair in Motherwell on 23rd August. We also attended the Fife Family day at the Rothes Halls on the 20th of September at Glenrothes. At both events, there was a lot of interest in the Society and we even managed to sell a few publications too!

We are still working on Barevan Churchyard and Records related to Nairn Poorhouse, both of which will be published next year. As mentioned before I would welcome any comments or ideas on the society's future publications. Please tell us what you want! Items for newsletter particularly welcomed.

Forres War Memorial

As mentioned on page one of this newsletter, the society's latest publication is of the men commemorated on the Forres War Memorial for the Great War.

But sadly a number of men related to Forres are not commemorated. You have to remember that this was all voluntary, no official lists were used only that supplied to the committee by the families. To some the grief may have been too much to bear and they possibly did not want to face the 'officialdom' all again or that the family had moved away from Forres in the intervening years.

Here are a few men who were not commemorated, there are probably others.

Reported in the Forres, Elgin & Nairn Gazette of the 22nd April 1916 of the following: 'Death of a Local Territorial in France. We regret to learn of the death, in hospital in France, of Lance-Corpl. Donald McKeddie, Forres. Death was due to pneumonia. Previous to mobilisation Lance-Corpl. McKeddie was in the employment of Messrs John MacDonald, Ltd; timber merchants, Forres. Deceased was very popular with his fellow-workmen and acquaintances, and his death will be deeply regretted by all who knew him.' [CWGC - 2282 6th Seaforth Highlanders died 14 Apr 1916 buried at Aubigny Communal Cemetery Extension, Pas de Calais, France]

Reported in the Forres, Elgin & Nairn Gazette of the 21st November 1917 of the following: 'Roll of Honour. Died of Wounds. Private W. Urquhart, Forres. Mr Colin Urquhart, North Road, Forres, has received official notice from the Canadian Records Office that his son, Private William Urquhart, Canadians, had died from wounds in the Field Ambulance. Private Urquhart emigrated to Canada about fourteen years ago.' [CWGC - 436642 15th Canadian Infantry died 7 Nov 1917 buried at Vlamertinghe New Military Cemetery, Ypres, Belgium]

Reported in the Forres, Elgin & Nairn Gazette of the 21st November 1917 of the following: 'Roll of Honour. Died of Wounds. Private Alexander Falconer, Forres. Mrs Falconer, 9 Fraser's Buildings, Pilmuir, Forres, has been informed that her husband, Private Alexander Falconer, Labour Company, has died from wounds received on 30th October. Deceased, who was 36 years of age, was a farm servant with Mr Law, Brackla, The Grange, Cawdor, before enlisting in June last year, and he has been in France for 16 months.' [CWGC - S/13967 3rd Seaforth Highlanders transferred to 115057 192nd Labour Corps died 30 Oct 1917 buried at Nine Elms British Cemetery, Poperinge, Belgium. Son of Mrs Jane Falconer, Urkney, Cawdor and husband of Mrs Falconer, Thorp, Dunphail, Moray]

Reported in the Forres, Elgin & Nairn Gazette of the 19th December 1917 of the following: 'Forres Seaman's Military Funeral - On Wednesday last Stoker James Cameron, H.M.S Nathaniel Cole, who had been stationed in Ireland and was a patient in the Leancoil Hospital, where he died, was buried. He was two years in the Navy, and, before enlisting, was a farm servant with Mr Ferrie, Kinloss. He was 25 years of age. The remains were conveyed to his residence in North Road and were interred with military honours, the military escort, consisting of the Forres Volunteers under Captain Roderick MacLeod. The cortege was headed by the Pipe Band and Rev. Mr Watt conducted service at the house and at Cluny Hill Cemetery. The funeral ended with the usual ceremony.'
